“For God and Country”

November 2018

Commander’s Notes:

November is always a busy month for the Post. With color guard events, flag etiquette classes, school visits, fundraisers, and other events, it seems like we celebrate Veterans Day for about 10 days in a row. Now, this may be a slight exaggeration, but we are really involved in a lot of activities and events and it takes a lot of coordination and volunteers to make this happen. If you have a few minutes, we could use your help.

Once again the Post will host the Anderson Township Veterans Day event. This year it will be held on Saturday, November 10th. You’ll get a free meal and quality entertainment! All you need to do is sign up.

I also want to reach out and say “Happy Birthday Marine” to all my brothers-in-arms. On November 10th, the corps will celebrate 243 years of service to our nation, and of course there will be cake. Another reason to sign-up for the Veterans Day event.

In just a few short days it will be time for you to get out and vote. As veterans, this act of citizenship should be a priority. After all, what other group of Americans has done more to earn this right? Regardless of how you lean, get out and vote.

With the holiday season coming up, keep in mind that there are many people who can use a helping hand. Consider how you can make a difference. If you can’t help directly, there are many churches and other organizations that can help through your support.

Just a reminder! Our constitution specifies that all 2019 membership dues be paid by October 20th. If you haven’t paid your dues yet, please take a minute right now and write that check. We will begin suspending Post key card access on, or about, November 1st.

Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs)

Reprint from Fidelity Investments

When planning your IRA withdrawal strategy, you may want to consider making charitable donations through a QCD.

A QCD is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA custodian, payable to a qualified charity. QCDs can be counted toward satisfying your required minimum distributions (RMDs) for the year, as long as certain rules are met.

In addition to the benefits of giving to charity, a QCD excludes the amount donated from taxable income, which is unlike regular withdrawals from an IRA. Keeping your taxable income lower may reduce the impact to certain tax credits and deductions, including Social Security and Medicare.

Also, QCD's don't require that you itemize, which due to the recent tax law changes, means you may decide to take advantage of the higher standard deduction, but still use a QCD for charitable giving.

Can I make a QCD?

While many IRAs are eligible for QCDs—Traditional, Rollover, Inherited, SEP (inactive plans only), and SIMPLE (inactive plans only)* —there are requirements:

- You must be 70½ or older to be eligible to make a QCD.
- QCDs are limited to the amount that would otherwise be taxed as ordinary income. This excludes non-deductible contributions.
- The maximum annual amount that can qualify for a QCD is $100,000. This applies to the sum of QCDs made to one or more charities in a calendar year. (If, however, you file taxes jointly, your spouse can also make a QCD from his or her own IRA within the same tax year for up to $100,000.)
- For a QCD to count towards your current year's RMD, the funds must come out of your IRA by your RMD deadline, generally December 31.

Any amount donated above your RMD does not count toward satisfying a future year's RMD.

Funds distributed directly to you, the IRA owner, and which you then give to charity do not qualify as a QCD.

Under certain circumstances, a QCD may be made from a Roth IRA. Roth IRAs are not subject to RMDs during your lifetime, and distributions are generally tax-free. Consult a tax advisor to determine if making a QCD from a Roth is appropriate for your situation.

What kind of charities qualify?

The charity must be a 501(c)(3) organization, eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions.

Some charities do not qualify for QCDs:

- Private foundations
- Supporting organizations: i.e., charities carrying out exempt purposes by supporting other exempt organizations, usually other public charities
- Donor-advised funds, which public charities manage on behalf of organizations, families, or individuals

Tax reporting

A QCD is reported as a normal distribution on IRS Form 1099-R for any non-Inherited IRAs. For Inherited IRAs or Inherited Roth IRAs, the QCD will be reported as a death distribution. Itemization is not required to make a QCD. While the QCD amount is not taxed, you may not then claim the distribution as a charitable tax deduction.

A QCD is not subject to withholding. State tax rules may vary, so for guidance, consult a tax advisor.

When making a QCD, you must receive the same type of acknowledgement of the donation that you would need to claim a deduction for a charitable contribution.

A tax advisor can help you determine if both your IRA and charity qualify for QCDs.

Editor's Note: American Legion Post 318 Charities, Inc. (Charities, Inc.) is a qualified 501 (c) 3, and this strategy has been used by Post members to make contributions in support Post projects and programs administered by Charities, Inc.

Membership Update

We are trending significantly below where we’ve been at this point in time as compared to the past 4 years (75% - 80%). We picked up 8 renewals for the month of October. Here are our current stats:

2019 Membership Scoreboard

Paid as of 10/31/18	109
2019 Goal	165
% Goal	66.10
2019 Quota	159
% Quota	68.60
Still Needed	50
Projected Shortfall	6

To make up this shortfall we still need to recruit 6 new members and have the remainder of our members that haven’t renewed to date (50), please do so. If you hear of someone interested in joining our Post, please send them my way and I will be glad to follow up.

Each Post is offered monetary rewards for hitting different percentage goals of quota by various dates. Therefore, we really need your support in order for our Post to receive these monetary incentives.

Still Collecting Service Photo’s

Over the last couple of years we have been building a collection of Legion and service photo’s. They have been placed in a slide show that we use for Veterans Day and other events. We would like to add more photo’s to this collection. If you have any photo’s to share, please contact Don Bishop. We would prefer receiving them in a JPEG format. However, if you have original photos to submit we will scan and return them.

High School Diploma?

If you or someone you know is a veteran that never received a high school diploma because you dropped out to fight a war, please let me know. Princeton High School wants to provide a graduation ceremony and diploma. Princeton High School has been doing this for the past 10 years or so and it’s a really nice ceremony that is held on Veterans Day. Col. Dean Smittle will be the guest speaker.

Chaplain's Report

November is upon us with chilly winds, shorter days, and less active times. The work of the Legion goes on. October was successful with three dances, a couple rentals and the old stand-by, bingo. These activities bring in the cash to keep us afloat. These all take bodies to operate and be successful. Ask anyone who worked one of these events that they are fun and don't take a lot of your time.

Veteran activities dot this month with Honor Guards, dinners, VA visit, flag give always at Kroger and more dances. Hopefully you will find time to check these activities out.

Our building has new asphalt on part of our driveway, and the front lot has been sealed and reclined. Thanks to Bob Alfieri and his trusted crew of volunteers our Post is a showcase of Legion buildings in SW Ohio. With Don's leadership we have maintained our position in District 4, and have stayed out of debt. Many of you have joined the Post and have never been in the Post or taken advantage of our activities. On October 23rd, there was a hot dog and S'mores party for all members and their guest put on by our Second Vice, Randy Lindsey. It was not well attended but those who came had fun and the food was great.

Your key gets you into the Club room, but not many people take advantage. Beautiful bar but not used like it was intended. There are also two dances scheduled for this month, and the bands are very good, even if you don't dance, you can sit, watch and listen.

The following people are still need our prayers so they can get better and get back to Post activities: Keith Musselman, John Smith, Don McGlaughlin, and Bill King.

Don't forget to put December 7th, on your calendar because that evening is the free Christmas party at the Legion. Watch for more information. If possible, check our website regularly for updates: www.Post318.Com.

Mentoring Opportunity

I have begun mentoring a student at Nagel Middle School. This is a very worthwhile endeavor. I urge you to think about doing the same. There are opportunities in all the Middle and High Schools with very flexible schedules. If you have an hour a week you could change a life. Call me (513-374-2099) for information.

American Legion Represented at Tristate Veterans Community Alliance (TVCA) Wellness Expo

Reprinted from 4th District Newsletter:

Legionnaire's Don Bishop (318), Aaron Cunningham (631), Greg Elsbernd (199) along with Auxiliary member Judi Maupin (450) represented the American Legion at the inaugural TVCA Veteran Wellness Expo.

This expo was intended for connecting Tri-state veterans and families with partners that promote career, financial, social, physical and community wellness. The thought behind the expo was that wellness goes beyond physical health, it incorporates career success, financial stability, social well-being and being active in the community.

Contact was made with several veterans who showed interest in the American Legion, as well as with several organizations who serve veterans and are interested in collaborating with the American Legion in joint efforts to reach our transitioning and struggling veterans in the area. TVCV has already begun planning next year's expo to which I am sure the American Legion will be invited.

Virtual Meetings

Last month we had to suspend our Virtual Meeting; but, we will be back online for the November meeting. We are still in beta testing and currently have two (2) members assisting with this testing. However, we could use a couple more to help us work out any bugs. If you might be interested in interacting or monitoring our monthly meetings via a laptop, notebook, tablet or smartphone, please contact me and I will get you set up. The process is very simple and painless, I promise.
